

August 2002
Meeting

Lynn Area Women's Network for Entrepreneurial Training

The Lynn Area WNET welcomes Nancy Black who will address effective time management strategies on Tuesday August 6, 2002

Making Time For You In 2002

Nancy Black was a pioneer in the Professional Organizing Industry when she started her business (Organization Plus) in 1983. She served on the boards of the National Association of Professional Organizers, Home-based Businesswomen's Network, North Shore Women In Business and is actively involved in business groups on the North Shore.

She advises business people on organizing their workspace, enhancing their time management and developing team players. Her clients range from cellar dwellers to the top of the John Hancock.

Nancy has appeared on major network television and was featured in Entrepreneur and Family Circle. She was a columnist for The Business Advantage (1998 & 1999).
